CIPS ® CERTIFIED INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY SPECIALIST | Elective Course: A la carte Registration The Americas & International Markets

Earning your CIPS Designation requires 5 days of International Courses.

*Local Markets & Transaction Tools is the mandatory core class (2 day workshop).
*The Americas & International Markets serves as 1 of 3 required elective classes towards your CIPS Designation.
*Other 2 elective classes: Asia/Pacific & International Markets; Europe & International Markets

International real estate opportunities are everywhere. New people move to the U.S. from other countries every day and foreign-born individuals residing in the U.S. move to new markets. Americans in your current market invest in property overseas. No matter which international audience you cater to, the Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) designation will provide you with the knowledge, research, network and tools to globalize your business.

Earning your CIPS Designation requires 5 days of International Courses. The Americas and International Markets serves as an elective towards your CIPS Designation.

In this course discover practical information on working with Caribbean, North, Central, and South American Investors. Historical and cultural influences, regional relationships, and investment opportunities are covered along with a special focus on Mexico.
