

The Intro to Equestrian Properties 3 Hour Continuing

Education Course introduces participants to the equestrian Real Estate Market and takes tadeen leak estate Market and takes tadeen leak estate that property, including burnet, included by housing barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks are looks at the equestrian market on a local and national level and arenas are looks. The equestrian market on a local and national level and arenas are local and national level and arenas arenas as a local and national level and arenas arenas as a local and national level and arenas arenas as a local and national level and arenas are local and national level and arenas arenas arenas as a local and national level and arenas arenas arenas as a local and national level and arenas arenas

Register At www.AmericanREU.com/classes

Intro to Equestrian Properties

The Intro to Equestrian Properties 3 Hour Continuing Education Course introduces participants to the equestrian Real Estate Market and takes a look at what makes up an equestrian property, including but not limited to housing, barns, arenas, stalls and tack rooms. This course also looks at the equestrian market on a local and national level and aims to give agents a better understanding on how to effectively market an equestrian property.

Sponsored By

