

This course provides a practical guide to a broker's legal and ethical responsibilities when training and supervising licensees in Georgia. Topics include developing effective office policies, onboarding and mentoring new agents, transaction review procedures, risk management, recordkeeping, advertising compliance, and handling complaints or disputes. Brokers will gain real-world strategies to build productive agents, protect their brokerage, and stay

Wed Mar 25, 2026

10:00am - 12:00pm EST

Real Estate School of Georgia

246 W. DeLoach Street • Griffin, GA

Register At www.AmericanREU.com/classes

Training and Supervising Georgia Licensees: Broker Responsibilities in Action

This course provides a practical guide to a broker's legal and ethical responsibilities when training and supervising licensees in Georgia. Topics include developing effective office policies, onboarding and mentoring new agents, transaction review procedures, risk management, recordkeeping, advertising compliance, and handling complaints or disputes. Brokers will gain real-world strategies to build productive agents, protect their brokerage, and stay compliant with Georgia Real Estate Commission requirements while fostering a culture of accountability and professionalism.

Sponsored By

