Build Wealth Beyond the Closing Table

Most real estate professionals spend their careers helping others build wealth—but often overlook opportunities to strengthen their own financial foundation.

This educational workshop introduces the concept of Infinite Banking and how properly structured cash value life insurance can be used as part of a long-term financial strategy. You'll learn how many business owners and investors use these strategies to create liquidity, improve financial flexibility, and reduce reliance on traditional financing.

Topics include:

Building accessible cash value over time
Creating a personal source of financing
Strategies for funding investments and business opportunities
Long-term wealth preservation... Read more at AmericanREU.net
