Broker Shall Be Deemed Responsible Unless...

According to GA License Law & the GREC Rules & Regs, the Broker is deemed responsible for any & all actions (including violations) of all of their affiliated licensees.

That's a lot of pressure. The question is oftentimes asked – "why would anyone want to be a broker or qualifying broker?" Well, the answer is found by taking a deep dive into a very important section of the GA Real Estate License Law, OGGA 43-40-18 - Firm Management - which outlines the necessary steps, requirements & practices for a broker/qualifying broker to protect themselves & to ensure that their affiliated licensees are maintaining those license-law-described attributes of "honesty, trustworthiness, integrity & competence" that are expected of all real estate licensees in Georgia. This course will also delve into firm management as referenced in the GREC Rules & Regs.

RE Forms 101

There are thousands of real estate agents in Georgia who are not members of their local Board of Realtors & therefore do not have license to use GAR Forms so it is imperative for ALL real estate practitioners in our state to have at least a basic familiarity with the RE Forms that these non-Board professionals use as we must always remember the GA License Law, GREC 520 & BRRETA mandate of:

"Present ALL Offers!"

Specifically, this course will cover the RE Forms Purchase & Sale Agreement, Exclusive Right to Sell & Exclusive Buyer's Brokerage Agreement as well as several other forms including but not limited to Amendment to Agreement, Seller's Property Disclosure, Commission Acknowledgement (Instructions to Closing Attorney) & Lease Agreement.

No matter whether a Board or non-Board member, this class will be very informative for all those who take it.

Probate Property Specialist

This six (6) hour Certification course is designed to provide real estate professionals with a comprehensive understanding of the probate process and how to successfully navigate working with probate properties and grieving families. This course will discuss what probate is and how real estate professionals can be an integral part of helping families through a sometimes difficult process.

Students will learn how to explain the probate process and how it impacts real estate professionals, identify and apply the relevant laws and regulations regarding probate sales, successfully market and list probate properties, work effectively with lawyers, executors, and other professionals, navigate the ethical and emotional challenges of working with grieving families, better understand the paperwork that is required during the probate process and how to avoid common pitfalls of the probate process.

Additionally, a real estate professional with this training can help a grieving family to sell their loved one's home quickly and for a fair price. This can help the family to alleviate financial stress and move on with their lives; A real estate professional with this training can help a probate executor to navigate the complex legal process of selling an estate property. This can save the executor time and money, and help to ensure that the estate is settled in a timely manner; and a real estate professional with this training can help to protect the interests of minor or incapacitated beneficiaries of a probate estate. This can help to ensure that the beneficiaries receive the assets that they are entitled to.

Overall, the Probate Property Specialist course helps to make the probate process more efficient and compassionate for everyone involved. This benefits the community by reducing stress for grieving families, protecting the interests of beneficiaries, and supporting the local economy.
